Former Ambassador Peter Galbraith, '73, will have just returned from Syria and Iraq when he speaks on the volatile situation in the Middle East, including an update on recent developments in the entire region. Join us on February 16 at 6:30 p.m. at Salem's Historic Hawthorne Hotel and receive an uncensored assessment of this explosive situation. This lecture is presented as part of the Benazir Bhutto Fellowship Public Education Initiative of ClassACTHR73.

Peter W. Galbraith served as the first U.S. Ambassador to Croatia. He has held senior positions in the U.S. Government and the United Nations, including in 2009 as Deputy Special Representative of the Secretary-General of the United Nations in Afghanistan. Galbraith was the mediator of the 1995 Erdut Agreement that ended the war in Croatia, and was actively involved in the Bosnia peace processes. Currently, he is the Senior Diplomatic Fellow at the Center for Arms Control and Non-Proliferation where his work focuses on Syria and Iraqi Kurdistan. He is the author of The End of Iraq: How American Incompetence Created a War Without End and Unintended Consequences: How War in Iraq Strengthened America's Enemies. Peter Galbraith is a member of the Advisory Board and the Steering Committee of the Benazir Bhutto Fellowship Program of ClassACT HR 73. (www.classacthr73.org) Sign up HERE.

Climate Change and Getting Past Climate Gridlock

Last year was the hottest year in recorded history, smashing a previous mark set only in 2014. Find out what this means and why. On Tuesday, February 9, renowned M.I.T. Professor Susan Solomon will outline the science behind climate change and global warming. It is well established that climate change is happening and that carbon dioxide emissions from fossil fuel are the dominant cause. Dr. Solomon will discuss the recent Paris agreement and the long term prospects for our planet. Sign up HERE.
